THE DRAGON'S CHILDREN SERIES

EPIC FANTASY/YA FANTASY

If you like Harry Potter, you're going to love this series.

Natli VanDerWerken loves Dragons. She collected 30 of them from all over the world while she served in the Navy as a meteorologist. She is a Dragon expert. Red Dragon's Keep was inspired by a story starring her grandchildren that she told to them one Christmas Eve. The book won two Silver Awards and an Award of Merit at the 2018 Colorado Independent Publishers Evvy Awards. Natli has been telling tales to her friends, children, their friends, and her grandchildren for a very long time.

I thoroughly enjoyed this book, and it is an excellent choice for young readers! The Dragon's Children Series Book One is a well thought out, well-written book that keeps you engaged in the story from page one. It's a complete page-turner, that has everything young adult (and even older adult) readers want—adventure, excitement, magic, fantasy, and even—a dragon! I was mesmerized! This is the first in a total of five books in this series (four of them are forthcoming). I hope Ms. VanDerWerken finishes them soon. Otherwise, I fear she might have her readers knocking down her door!

The author has created a suspenseful novel that grabs the reader's interest from the start. Full of action and adventure, the story weaves magic, treachery, and a young man's coming of age into a compelling read that won't let go until the last page. The characters are likable. I cheered for them at every turn. The plot keeps building until the surprise ending, leaving you breathless and waiting for the next adventure. This is a good read. Ann Hicks
